

Posthumous Conception

Speakers: Andrew Davies, O'Sullivan Davies
Location: National Australia Bank
Level 14, 100 St Georges Tce, Perth
Date: Thursday 29 September 2011
Time: 5:30pm – 7:30pm
Cost: $20 (members) and $70 (non-members)
Format: Speaker Presentation

Topic: This seminar will examine the law and a number of salient cases concerning posthumous conception and the removal of sperm from the terminally ill.

The following matters, amongst others, will be discussed:

- Posthumous taking of sperm;
- Removal of sperm from the terminally ill;
- Posthumous use of sperm; and
- Succession issues relevant to the posthumous use of sperm

Andrew will speak to the paper, 'Posthumous Conception Cases' by Darlene Skennar, a Queensland Barrister from the Inns at Court, which was delivered to the Queensland branch of STEP on 2 February 2011. Andrew has also agreed to provide a short addendum to the paper highlighting the relevant West Australian specific provisions and cases.

About the speaker:

Andrew has been practising Family Law for over 25 years and is an accredited Family Law Specialist. He has a particular interest in the areas of complex financial settlements, Financial Agreements, International Family Law, trusts and matrimonial estate planning. This has involved him working with clients in numerous countries with particular regard to issues of conflict of laws between different states. Andrew is currently the Chair of the Australian Institute of Family Law Arbitrators and Mediators (AIFLAM)

He has presented numerous papers and lectures at state, national and international conferences and has been a guest lecturer at Murdoch University Law School. He is also a mediator, a fellow of the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers and former Chair of the Family Law & Family Rights Section of LawAsia.
