In keeping with STEP Perth's desire to deliver educational events not otherwise available in Perth, we present a seminar presentation by Jeremy Curthoys from John Toohey Chambers.

Jeremy will speak to the paper by the Honourable Justice Tom Gray of the Supreme Court of South Australia which was delivered at the launch of Adelaide branch of STEP on 12 February 2010 on the topic "Beneficiary's rights on breaches by trustees and executors".

The paper outlines a number of rights and remedies available to beneficiaries on breaches by trustees and executors. The following matters, among others, will be briefly examined:

- the nature of the beneficiaries' rights
- the office of trustee and executor
- remedies for breach of trust
- compelling the performance of the trust
- restraining breach of a trust
- other options available to beneficiaries

Jeremy has also agreed to provide a short addendum to the paper highlighting the relevant West Australian specific provisions.

Jeremy Curthoys was admitted to practice in 1980 and worked at Parker and Parker in Perth and Freshfields in London before joining the independent Bar in 1985. He is now a member of John Toohey Chambers providing opinion work, trial and appellate advocacy in commercial, civil and estates litigation. Jeremy is the co-author of Advocacy: An Introduction (Lexis Nexis 2006), co-editor of Civil Procedure Western Australia and co-editor of Wills Estates and Administration Western Australia.
