

Contentious Trusts and Estates
SPECIAL INTEREST GROUP

CONTENTIOUS TRUSTS AND ESTATES

Special Interest Group

Join our community
www.step.org/sigs

CONTENTIOUS TRUSTS AND ESTATES

The Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG (Special Interest Group) provides a forum for sharing international trust and estate jurisprudence and marshalling expertise and best practice in dealing with, and avoiding, trust and estate disputes. The group aims to nurture expertise, promote best practice, including the use of Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), and help non-contentious practitioners avoid pitfalls encountered in trust and estate litigation.

GROUP BENEFITS

- An international forum for sharing and accessing expertise
- Dedicated training and education resources, including events and webcasts, providing CPD opportunities
- Access to exclusive, specialised content on our website
- Regular e-updates from your group and industry news, events and activities
- Discuss topical issues with fellow practitioners and contribute your expertise and knowledge via the webcasts, events, online discussion forums and the STEP Journal
- Industry focussed international e-discussion forum
- Your member listing within the online SIG member directory
- Discounted rates to attend SIG events
- Networking opportunities and exposure for you and your business
- Member discounts on specially selected industry resources, products and services

Join our community www.step.org/sigs

JOIN US

Joining the Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG is easy, visit www.step.org/sigs to sign up online.

Membership is open to both STEP members and non-members. There is no joining fee but this may change, so join us today.

For any questions about our SIGs, email sigs@step.org

YOUR PEERS

- Over 1,000 experienced professionals
- Practitioners across 49 countries from more than 600 organisations

TESTIMONIALS

“SIG conferences are invaluable in providing CPD at a detailed level.”

Alexandra Taylor TEP, Solicitor and Partner,
Botvyle Consultants

“The networking opportunities with other contentious trust practitioners at the SIG events are impactful for my work and business.”

Sharon Kenchington TEP, Solicitor,
Boodle Hatfield LLP

ABOUT OUR SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS

Our Special Interest Groups provide opportunities for practitioners and related professionals to connect and advance their focused area of practice.

Specialisms focus around some of the more complex issues families face in planning for their future surrounding international families, protection of the vulnerable, family businesses and philanthropic giving, for example. The groups aim to benefit the practitioner, their area of specialisation, the clients they serve, and the industry at large.

STEP presently offer eight Special Interest Groups:

- Business Families
- Charities
- Contentious Trusts and Estates
- Cross-Border Estates
- Digital Assets
- International Client
- Mental Capacity
- Philanthropy Advisors

Find out more and join at www.step.org/sigs

ABOUT STEP

STEP is the worldwide professional association for those advising families across generations. We promote best practice, professional integrity and education to our members. Our members help families plan for their futures: from drafting a will or advising family businesses, to helping international families and protecting vulnerable family members.

Today we have over 20,000 members across 95 countries. They include lawyers, accountants and other trust and estate specialists.