

Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG Website Pages – Member Guide

This handy how-to-guide provides you with essential information on all the webpages you can access and utilise on the STEP website as a Global Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG Member.

Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG Member Portal \(SIG Member login required\)

Member Portal

www.step.org/cte-member-resources

A dedicated member portal for Contentious Trusts and Estates SIG Members, comprising of...

Past Event Documents – access all previous event materials, including the full delegate pack, as well as any subsequent handouts from the events.

Member discounts – view member discounts and promotional codes on a number of publications.

Interactive Multimedia – access webcasts specific to the SIG.

STEP Journal Archive – view a library of SIG-related journal articles.

Related Reading – take a look at related articles with specific relevance to contentious trusts and estates.

Qualification – The STEP Advanced Certificate in Trust Disputes. This qualification will help those involved with the creation and administration of trusts to anticipate, and avoid, the common pitfalls which can lead to trust litigation. Find out more at www.step.org/qualifications/step-advanced-certificate-trust-disputes

FAQ's...

How do I join a Special Interest Group? Click on our 'join' page here; www.step.org/sigs-join. Membership of the Special Interest Groups is open to STEP Members and non-members alike.

What are the benefits of being a member of a STEP Special Interest Group? Please visit our 'benefits' page here; www.step.org/sigs-member-benefits. All the benefits are listed and the page includes videos, to hear what members have to say about the benefits of becoming a SIG Member. Each SIG also has its own specific benefits page, found via their homepage.

On the benefits page you can download a useful SIG member benefit chart.

Do you have any specialised events which may be of interest to me? All upcoming SIG events are listed on the SIG-Related events calendar here; www.step.org/sig-events. Each individual event listing will display event details, a flyer and a registration link.

Latest news for the Special Interest Group? The latest newsworthy update for the SIG will be displayed in the news noticeboard as an image on the SIG homepage; this may be the next upcoming event, a recent webcast or newsletter, as examples.

Can I search for fellow Members of my SIG? Yes you can. All Members who have opted to appear on the SIG Member Directory can be searched for here; www.step.org/search/sig-members. Filters are available by SIG and location. PLEASE NOTE: When not searching for a specific person by name, the search brings back 10 results at random; re-running the same search will bring back a different 10 Members who qualify for the same search criteria.

Not receiving emails from your SIG? Members can opt-in and out of receiving emails from STEP by managing their preferences in their online profile. If you aren't receiving email updates from your SIG membership, check that 'SIG Updates' isn't unticked in the 'Communication Preferences' tab of your profile at www.step.org/user/login. If problems persist please contact sigs@step.org.